

MAXCYTE, INC.

CHARTER OF THE NOMINATING AND CORPORATE GOVERNANCE COMMITTEE OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

I. PURPOSE

The primary purpose of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee (the “Committee”) of the Board of Directors (the “Board”) of MaxCyte, Inc. (the “Company”) shall be to: (i) oversee aspects of the Company’s corporate governance functions on behalf of the Board; (ii) make recommendations to the Board regarding corporate governance issues; (iii) identify and evaluate candidates to serve as directors of the Company, consistent with the criteria approved by the Board, (iv) review and evaluate the performance of the Board; (v) serve as a focal point for communication between director candidates, non-committee directors and the Company’s management; (vi) make recommendations to the Board regarding the selection and approval of candidates to serve as nominees for director to be submitted to a stockholder vote at the annual meeting of stockholders; and (vii) make other recommendations to the Board regarding affairs relating to the directors of the Company.

II. COMPOSITION

The Committee shall consist of at least two (2) members appointed by the Board. The members of the Committee shall satisfy the independence requirements imposed by any stock exchange on which any of the Company’s capital stock is listed, including any phase-in periods permitted by such requirements and the Quoted Companies Alliance’s Corporate Governance Code (the “QCA Code”). The Chair of the Committee shall be appointed by the Board and shall be the Chair of the Board or an independent non-executive director. In the absence of the Committee Chair and/or an appointed deputy, the remaining members present shall elect one of their number to chair the meeting from those who would qualify under these terms of reference to be appointed to that position by the Board. The Chair of the Board shall not chair the Committee when it is dealing with the succession to the chairmanship of the Board.

Appointments to the Committee shall be for a period of up to three years, which may be extended by no more than two further three year periods, provided the director remains independent.

The Company Secretary or his or her nominee shall act as the Secretary of the Committee.

The quorum for decisions of the Committee shall be any 2 members.

III. MEETINGS AND MINUTES

The Committee shall hold such regular or special meetings as its members shall deem necessary or appropriate, but in no event shall it meet less than annually. Any member of the Committee or the Board may call a meeting of the Committee. The Secretary shall minute the proceedings and resolutions of all Committee meetings, including the names of those present and in attendance. Unless directed otherwise by the Chair of the Committee, minutes of the meetings of the Committee shall be made available to all members of the Committee and, once agreed, to the Board (unless a conflict of interest exists). Meetings may also be called by the Secretary at the request of any member of the Committee.

Minutes of each meeting of the Committee shall be prepared and distributed to each director of the Company and the Secretary of the Company after each meeting. The chair of the Committee shall report to the Board from time to time or whenever so requested by the Board.

IV. AUTHORITY

Each member of the Committee shall have full access to all books, records, facilities and personnel of the Company as deemed necessary or appropriate by any member of the Committee to discharge his or her responsibilities hereunder. The Committee shall have access to and shall communicate with the Board, chairs of the committees of the Board, members of senior management and independent professional advisors to the Board and its various committees, as applicable. The Committee shall have the authority to obtain, at the expense of the Company, advice and assistance from internal or external legal, accounting or other advisors, experts and consultants as the Committee deems necessary or appropriate for carrying out its duties under this charter. The Committee shall have the authority to retain and terminate executive search firms to help identify director candidates. The Committee shall have the authority to approve fees, costs and other terms of engagement of such outside resources and shall be directly responsible for the oversight of such outside resources. The Committee shall also have authority to pay, at the expense of the Company, ordinary administrative expenses that, as determined by the Committee, are necessary or appropriate in carrying out its duties, unless prohibited by Nasdaq listing rules, the AIM Rules for Companies published by London Stock Exchange plc (the “AIM Rules”) or applicable law. The Committee shall have authority to request that any of the Company’s personnel, counsel, accountants or investment bankers, or any other consultant or advisor to the Company, attend any meeting of the Committee or meet with any member of the Committee or any of its special, outside legal, accounting or other, advisors or consultants.

The Committee may form and delegate authority to one or more subcommittees as appropriate, but only to the extent consistent with the Company’s amended and restated certificate of incorporation, amended and restated bylaws (the “Bylaws”), Corporate Governance Guidelines (as defined below), rules of The Nasdaq Stock Market LLC, the QCA Code, the AIM Rules and other applicable law. Delegation by the Committee to any subcommittee shall not limit or restrict the Committee on any matter so delegated, and, unless the Committee alters or terminates such delegation, any action by the Committee on any matter so delegated shall not limit or restrict future action by such subcommittee on such matters. The operation of the Committee shall be subject to the Bylaws as in effect from time to time and Section 141 of the Delaware General Corporation

Law (or any successor section). The approval of this charter shall be construed as a delegation of authority to the Committee with respect to the responsibilities set forth herein.

V. RESPONSIBILITIES

To implement the Committee's purpose, the Committee shall have the following responsibilities. The Committee may supplement and deviate from these activities as appropriate under the circumstances (except as otherwise required by applicable law or the requirements of any stock exchange on which any of the Company's capital stock is then listed):

1. Director Nominations. The Committee shall identify and evaluate candidates to serve on the Company's Board consistent with the criteria approved by the Board, including consideration of the potential conflicts of interest as well as applicable independence and other requirements. The Committee shall also have responsibility for reviewing, evaluating and considering the recommendation for nomination of incumbent directors for re-election to the Board, as well as monitoring the size of the Board. The Committee shall also recommend to the Board for selection, candidates to the Board to serve as nominees for director for the annual meeting of stockholders. The Committee shall also have the power and authority to consider recommendations for Board nominees and proposals submitted by the Company's stockholders, to recommend to the Board appropriate action on any such proposal or recommendation and to make any disclosures required by Nasdaq listing rules, the AIM Rules and applicable law in the course of exercising its authority. The Committee shall recommend nominees to the Board at an appropriate time: (a) prior to each annual meeting of stockholders at which directors are to be elected or re-elected; and (b) after a vacancy arises on the Board or a director advises the Board of his or her intention to resign.

2. Board Assessment. The Committee shall periodically review, discuss and assess the performance of the Board, including Board committees, seeking input from senior management, the full Board and others. The assessment shall include evaluation of the Board's contribution as a whole and the Board's effectiveness in serving the best interests of the Company and its stockholders, specific areas in which the Board and/or management believe contributions could be improved, and overall Board composition and makeup. The factors to be considered shall include whether the directors, both individually and collectively, can and do provide the integrity, experience, judgment, commitment, skills and expertise appropriate for the Company. The Committee shall also consider and assess the independence of directors, including whether a majority of the Board continue to be independent from management in both fact and appearance, as well as within the meaning prescribed by any stock exchange on which any of the Company's capital stock is then listed. The results of these reviews shall be provided to the Board for further discussion as appropriate.

The Committee shall:

- regularly review the structure, size and composition (including the skills, knowledge, experience and diversity) required of the Board and make recommendations to the Board with regard to any changes;

- keep under review the leadership needs of the organization, both executive and nonexecutive, with a view to ensuring the continued ability of the organization to compete effectively in the marketplace;
- keep up to date and fully informed about strategic issues and commercial changes affecting the Company and the market in which it operates.

3. Appointment of Chair. For the appointment of the Chair of the Board, the Committee shall prepare a job specification, including the time commitment expected.

4. Board Committee Membership. The Committee oversees the Board's committee structure and operations. The Committee, after due consideration of the interests, independence and experience of the individual directors and the independence and experience requirements set forth in the listing standards of any stock exchange on which the Company's capital stock is listed, the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission, the AIM Rules, the QCA Code and applicable law, shall make recommendations to the entire Board regarding the appointment of directors to serve as members of each committee and committee chairpersons.

5. Stockholder Communications. The Committee shall periodically review and make recommendations to the Board regarding the Company's process for stockholder communications with the Board, and make such recommendations to the Board with respect thereto as the Committee deems appropriate.

6. Director Education. The Committee may implement an orientation process for directors that includes background material on the Company's policies and procedures and expectations as to directors and committee member duties and responsibilities, time commitment, meetings with senior management and visits to the Company's facilities. The Committee shall also recommend to the Board such plan or program as it may deem appropriate for the continuing education of directors.

7. Disclosure of Interests. The Committee shall: (a) prior to the appointment of a director, require the proposed appointee to disclose any other business interests that may result in a conflict of interest and to report any future business interests that could result in a conflict of interest; and (b) keep under regular review any authorizations granted by the Board in connection with a directors' conflict of interest

8. Corporate Governance Guidelines and Principles. The Committee shall develop a set of corporate governance guidelines and principles (the "Corporate Governance Guidelines") to be applicable to the Company and shall periodically review and assess the Corporate Governance Guidelines and the Code of Conduct and Ethics, and shall recommend any changes deemed appropriate to the Board for its consideration.

9. Management Succession. The Committee shall develop and periodically review with the Company's Chief Executive Officer the plans for succession for the Company's executive officers, as it sees fit, and make recommendations to the Board with respect to the selection of appropriate individuals to succeed to these positions. The Committee shall also make recommendations to the Board concerning formulating plans for succession for non-executive directors and in particular the Chair role.

10. Procedures for Information Dissemination. The Committee shall periodically review the processes and procedures used by the Company to provide information to the Board and its committees and make recommendations to the Board and management for improvement as appropriate. The Committee should consider, among other factors, the reporting channels through which the Board and its committees receive information and the level of access to outside advisors where necessary or appropriate, as well as the procedures for providing accurate, relevant and appropriately detailed information to the Board and its committees on a timely basis.

11. Ethical Compliance. The Committee shall review the results of management's efforts to monitor compliance with the Company's programs and policies designed to ensure adherence to applicable laws and rules, as well as to its Code of Conduct and Ethics.

12. Share Dealing Code and Risk Assessment. The Committee shall review, and recommend that the Board consider and approve, any changes to the Company's Share Dealing Code. The Committee shall also oversee and review with management the Company's major legal compliance risk exposures and the steps management has taken to monitor or mitigate such exposures, including the Company's procedures and any related policies with respect to risk assessment and risk management.

13. Related-Party Transactions. The Committee shall review and approve or disapprove all related-party transactions (defined as those transactions required to be disclosed under Item 404 of Regulation S-K of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended) on an ongoing basis. Decisions involving related party transactions under the AIM Rules will be solely decided by the Board.

14. Leadership Structure. The Committee shall consider the Board's leadership structure, including the separation of the Chair of the Board and Chief Executive Officer roles and/or appointment of a lead independent director of the Board, either permanently or for specific purposes, and make such recommendations to the Board with respect thereto as the Committee deems appropriate. The Committee shall also review and discuss the narrative disclosure regarding the Board leadership structure and role in risk oversight to be included in any public filing in response to the requirements of Item 407(h) of Regulation S-K (or any successor disclosure item).

15. Committee Self-Assessment; Charter. The Committee shall review, discuss and assess its own performance at least annually. The Committee shall also review and assess the adequacy of this charter annually, including the Committee's role and responsibilities outlined herein, and shall recommend any proposed changes to the Board for its consideration.

16. Other Legal Matters. The Committee shall give due consideration to the provisions of the QCA Code, and the requirements of the Financial Conduct Authority's Disclosure Guidance and Transparency Rules and any other applicable rules, as appropriate and the AIM Rules and applicable laws and regulations, as well as the rules and regulations of the SEC and Nasdaq, in each case applicable to the Company.

17. Report to the Board. The Committee, through the Committee Chair, shall regularly report to the Board regarding the Committee's actions, or whenever so requested by the Board. The Committee may, if it deems appropriate, produce a report to be included in the UK annual report about its activities and the process used to make appointments. Where an external search agency has been used, it shall be identified in the UK annual report and a statement made as to whether it has any connection with the Company.

18. General Authority. The Committee shall perform such other functions and have such other powers as may be necessary or appropriate in the discharge of the foregoing.

PROCEDURE

At least 5 working days' notice of any meeting of the Committee shall be given, although such notice may be waived or shortened with the consent of all the members of the Committee for the time being. Notice of the meeting shall confirm the venue, time and date together with an agenda of items to be discussed. Notice shall be sent to each member of the Committee, any other person required to attend and all other non-executive directors. Supporting papers shall be sent to Committee members and to other attendees as appropriate, at the same time.

The Chair of the Committee shall be available at the annual meeting to respond to any shareholder questions on the activities and responsibilities of the Committee.

The Committee is authorized to seek any information it requires from any employee of the Company in order to perform its duties.

The Committee is authorized to obtain, at the Company's expense, outside legal or other professional advice on any matters within its charter.

The Company's Chief Executive Officer or Personnel Director or external advisers may be invited to attend and speak at meetings (or parts thereof) of the Committee. Other persons may be called upon or shall be able to speak by prior arrangement with the Chair of the Committee.

PUBLICATION

The Company shall make this charter freely available to stockholders on request and, provided that the Company is subject to the periodic reporting requirements of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, shall publish it on the Company's website.
